GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS PALMER TO FILM COUNCIL

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Peg Palmer of Durham to the North Carolina Film Council.

Palmer is the executive director of the Full Frame Documentary Film Festival. She is president of the Friends of the Nasher Museum at Duke University, a member of the Durham Central Park Board of Directors, and a member of Southeastern Efforts to Develop Sustainable Spaces (SEEDS). Palmer received her Bachelor's degree in English literature from the College of William & Mary in Williamsburg, Va.

The council serves as a forum for film-making concerns and makes recommendations to the secretary of the Department of Commerce relating to the film industry in North Carolina. The council has 25 members, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
